HOT-AIR FURNACES
—FOR—
Schools, Churches, Public and Private Buildings.

The above cut shows the RUBY FURNACE, without the Brick Shield or Iron Casing

THE REPUTATION OF THESE TRULY celebrated furnaces is undoubtedly without a parallel, and the high testimonials we have received from churches, from principals and teachers of public schools from academic and collegiate institutions from professors and men of high scientific attainments in all parts of the country, confirm us in the above statement.

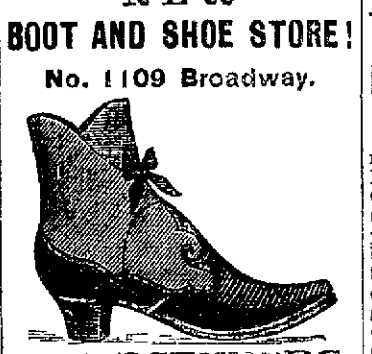

No surface burning furnaces ever introduced to the public have so completely won the unanimous expression of approval. They are constructed upon a scientific principle and cannot be excelled for economy, durability, power of heat, purity of the air and ease of management. One of the most important features of this Furnace is its adaptation for every description of fuel without a possibility of filling up any of its flues so as to impede its perfect operation. The HEATING SURFACE OF THE RUBY FURNACE is greater than that of any other furnace in use.

Estimates made upon the cost of heating buildings and all information needed relative to the size of furnace that would be required to heat a building, sizes and number of register, etc, will be cheerfully given on application.

We keep on hand all sizes of VENTILATORS and HOT AIR REGISTERS both ornamental and plain

The circulation of the TRIBUNE is more than double that of any other paper published in Alameda County.

Our San Francisco Office!

THE SAN FRANCISCO BRANCH OFFICE of the TRIBUNE has been removed to 504 Kearny Street, corner California. It is in charge of Mr. E. V. MILLETT, who will represent the TRIBUNE in San Francisco.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to the TRIBUNE will confer a special favor upon the management by reporting at the office any neglect on the part of carriers.

BECOMING A WICKED CITY.

One of two things should at once be done by the San Francisco authorities to suppress the street robbers who have been so industriously prosecuting their vocations of late. Either the police department should be weeded of inefficient members, or the force should be increased. The young hoodlums of a few years ago have become mature ruffians, with the old contempt for honest labor and the same determination to force their living from the industrious. The local crop is undergoing continual reinforcements from the interior; the slums and dives of the Barbary Coast affording inviting retreats for the vicious who find themselves in warm quarters elsewhere. The city will soon get a bad name abroad unless some thorough measures are taken to check the growth of the street crimes that are becoming so prevalent. A visit to San Francisco will become something to be dreaded, for people unaccustomed to the confusion and bustle of a large city will all the more prefer to stay at home than to venture where garroters and thieves ply their calling by day-light as well as by night. All large cities naturally become central abodes of vice, but our metropolitan neighbor is just now unusually badly infested for a city of its size and population.

PRACTICING AT THE BAR.

Another woman with a little pistol has come to the front. A widow named Mary Goodwin, dissatisfied with the conduct of an attorney, attempted to shoot him yesterday, in San Francisco. The legal profession comes in for more than its share of these kind of favors from the fair sex. Why is it thus? It is not long since a doctor was perforated by one of the dear creatures, but that is an isolated case in the medical profession. Except in that instance, female pistol practice has heretofore been directed at members of the Bar. Perhaps this is one of those beneficent provisions of Providence by which an overcrowded profession is to be regulated as to numbers, just as other and different great plagues are made use of in the economy of nature to prevent the world from becoming over-populated.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

It is confidently asserted that cars will be run to the Colorado river on the Southern Pacific Railroad by the 1st of January. The rails are now being laid at the rate of one and a quarter miles per day between Goshen and Hollister, a distance of one hundred and fifty miles. Goshen is about twelve miles from Visalia. Of the branch between the two places referred to, only fifty miles will be completed at present, and then the work of finishing the one hundred and thirty miles on the Colorado desert, to Yuma, will be commenced. The route will traverse one of the richest agricultural districts on the continent.

THE report which was telegraphed by cable several days since that torpedoes had been placed at the entrance of certain ports by the Russians is confirmed by a telegram yesterday received by the Board of Trade of London, stating that Russia has given official notice that the harbors of Odessa and Sebastopol, the mouth of the river Dnieper and the straits of Kertch are obstructed. Vessels are forbidden to approach in the night time, and must communicate with guardships before entering in daylight. The entrance without assistance from the guardships is absolutely prohibited.

SPAIN is sadly in need of a lesson in civility towards Americans. A dispatch from Madrid reports that two Protestant ministers, one a citizen of the United States, are being persecuted by the Spanish authorities for holding a prayer meeting, although no law of the country was infringed upon at the meeting. The United States government is painfully slow to move in the matter of protection to its citizens abroad, although abundantly able to enforce their rights.

Up to yesterday the total exports of wheat from San Francisco for the season amounted to 6,216,192 centals, valued at $10,103,323; barley, 60,068 centals, valued at $54,053, and flour, 160,860 barrels, valued at $516,042.

LOUISIANA will probably have a Republican majority in the Lower House of its State Legislature. The number of members is 120, of which the Republicans have, it is believed, 64.

SAN FRANCISCO grocery gin must be powerful stuff. A laborer tried some of it in one of these corner institutions yesterday and immediately fell dead.

NOTES AND EXCERPTS.

Dr. Legge, the professor of Chinese at Oxford, holds what may be called a sinecure. Not a student has yet offered himself.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says the only trouble with Ole Bull is a mother-in-law. Only. Daniel was only pitched into the den of lions, Prometheus was only chained to a rock while an eagle gnawed his liver, and Crammer was only burned at the stake.

A sum of £1,500,000 has been allotted for the construction of the French Exhibition Building of 1878. An artificial waterfall will be arranged at the Trocadero. Water will be pumped out of the Seine by colossal engines, which will themselves be an attractive part of the exhibition. The waterfall will be illuminated every evening with colored and electric lights.

The oldest member of the English royal family, the Princess Caroline, hereditary Princess of Denmark, completes, on October 28th, her eighty-third year. This venerable lady is the granddaughter of the unfortunate Queen Caroline Matilda, sister to George III., and married to the King of Denmark, Christian VII., but subsequently divorced. The Queen was exiled to the town of Celle, in Hanover, where she died very young.

"I have a friend" writes the Whitehall Review, "who is unable to leave London himself this autumn, but whose wife and children are enjoying the breezes of their native Scotland for a few weeks. Wishing to say something civil to him, and knowing that he and his better half got on pretty well together, I remarked that he must 'feel rather lonesome without Mrs. X. and the little ones.' 'Yes' he replied, 'I do; but the wind is tempered to the shorn lamb; and, you see, when my wife is away I can smoke in bed.'"

The following bits of anecdote are from a review of a curious book, Doctors and Patients, by the late Mr. Timbs, in Chambers' Journal: One is told about a very famous man, although not a famous doctor, Oliver Goldsmith, whose medical career ended in the house of a lady, a personal friend of his own, one Mrs. Sidebotham. He was prescribing for her, and he and the apothecary quarreled over the dose, the lady siding with the compounder of drugs. This was more than the M. D. could stand. He rushed out of the room in a violent passion, and said to Topham Beauclerc, whom he met: "I am determined henceforth to leave off prescribing for my friends." "Do so," said the wit dryly. "In future, when you undertake to kill, let it only be your enemies."

Most people have heard of Abernethy's gruffness; here is an anecdote which shows how truly kind and liberal he could be at times. In the year 1818 Lieut. D—— fell from his horse in London and sustained a fracture of the skull and arm. Mr. Abernethy was the nearest surgeon, and, being sent for, continued his attendance daily for months. When the patient became convalescent he was enjoined by Abernethy to proceed to Margate and adopt shell-fish diet. The patient requested to know the extent of his pecuniary liability. "Who is that young woman?" inquired Abernethy, smilingly. "She is my wife." "What is your rank in the army?" "I am a half-pay Lieutenant." "Oh, very well; wait till you are a General, then come and see me and we'll talk about it.

Dr. George M. Beard says in the Independent, that there is a wide-spread delusion that inebriety is incurable, and that the inebriate homes are failures. Some suppose that nearly all patients relapse as soon as they return to active life, but he seeks to refute that idea, and gives us the following as to the Franklin Home, in Philadelphia: "In four years 582 sufferers, all males, have been admitted. Of these 271 are regarded as cured, 75 have been much benefitted, 212 are put down as doubtful, while of the remaining 24 nothing is known. A person is called cured or reformed when he is known not to have drank since leaving the Home. Of these 281 who are regarded as cured, 178 were periodical and 93 were constant drinkers. The average time of using strong drink before entering the Home was fifteen years and ten months; the average time of drinking to excess was six years and seven months; the average daily quantity of liquor used by each person was one and a half pints. The average time of stay in the Home was seven and a half weeks." Dr. Beard believes that a third of those in all the American institutions who submit to the rules are cured; and he regards alcoholic appetite as really a disease. He tells of a superintendent of a New England asylum who, after a patient attains a proper degree of improvement, gives him a bottle of rum to carry in his pocket, telling him to take it out and look at it as often as he wishes, but not to drink it. This is, he thinks, a strengthening exercise of the will.

Mr. Algernon Charles Swinburne is now in his 30th year, and is the grandson of Sir John Swinburne, who died at the age of 98. Mr. Swinburne's father is an admiral in the British service, and his mother is the daughter of an earl. Though by birth he is a thorough aristocrat, he is, like Shelley, a radical in theory. In the time of Charles the First the Swinburnes, who were stout royalists, were forced to escape from Cromwell's rule into France. There the heads of the family died and there was left only a young son, all traces of whom were for a time lost. After the Restoration the heir of the Swinburnes was sought long and with infinite pains and at last was found—a lad whose memories of his childhood were few and fading. But he remembered an old hall, wherein men sat drinking from a silver bowl, which bowl the child watched intently for the sake of the cat's head which rose to sight as the punch decreased. The cat's head was the distinguishing device of the Swinburne arms, and this established the boy's identity. The poet takes pleasure in recalling this story of his ancestor, and has an album full of cat-pictures. His face strongly resembles that of a cat, and he is very proud of the fact; he is never more pleased than when the resemblance is mentioned. He is a small, slight person, with a disproportionately large head covered by a bushy mass of auburn hair. His eyes are large, set widely apart, and tawny in color. From the mouth up his face is somewhat like Shelley's, but his chin is weak and retreating.

The Paris Sport says: Queen Isabella of Spain possesses a collection of old lace which cannot be equaled in Europe, and which is worth several millions. Productions of all counties, kinds and ages are there, all perfect in work and of infinite richness. One dress of point D'Alencon is worth more than a hundred thousand francs. Some full sets of trimmings in old point, belonging to her majesty, are in themselves a fortune. This collection of lace is the pendant to that of cashmeres belonging to Queen Victoria, which is estimated at not less than five millions of francs. Her majesty possesses Indian shawls to which the labor of more than 20 years had been devoted, and which, at no matter what price, could not be reproduced at present, existing workmen having lost the secret of such an art. We do not speak of certain shawls woven with fine threads of gold, and in which the embroidery is ornamented with pearls and diamonds. Turning to other matters of female ornamentation, we can say that the finest emeralds in feminine jewelry are possessed by the Empress Elizabeth of Austria, just as the richest and most perfect collection of rubies extant is the property of the Grand Duchess of Saxe-Weimar, grand-daughter of Paul I. Emperor of Russia. Pearls and turquoises, which are without rival, belong to the Russian Imperial family, as do sapphires to the British house of Guelph. As for diamonds—except the crown jewels of various nations—private collections can vie with those of queens, and not disad-

DR. ARTHUR GENTIL & CO.,
No. 11 KEARNY STREET, S. F.
Thirty Years OF SUCCESS. No More BALD HEADS.
Extraordinary Cures. No More Gray Hairs.
The Great Regenerator of the Blood.

THE FALLING OFF and turning gray of the hair are invariably owing to feebleness of the general health, to impurity or impoverishment of the blood, to an anaemic or chlorotic diathesis. The cause being removed, the effect ceases "Sublata causa tollitur effectus."
This syrup is wholly vegetable. It cures radically all chronic diseases of the kidneys and of the nervous system. It regulates the blood system, and entirely obliterates weaknesses to which many females are subject.
The Syrup acts powerfully upon the nervous system and circulation of the blood.
The Regenerator of the Hair completes the cure begun with the Great Regenerator of the Blood. There are three numbers of progressive efficacy. It stops at once the falling off of the hair and makes it grow with new vigor.
The Pomade & Capillary Oil are a useful complement of the Regenerator of the Hair, as well as "Circassian Drops," which keep up the beauty of eyelashes, eyebrows, whiskers and mustaches.
The Morning Dew prevents wrinkles and imparts to the skin freshness and youth.
The Water of Beauty cures all cutaneous affections. We commend it specially to the use of the ladies for their private toilet, as it is a tonic and slightly astringent. The Water of Beauty may also be used as an excellent toilet wash. Also,
Smallpox Preventive, and certain cure after the disease has made its first appearance.
$500 Reward will be paid to the person who can prove that our medicines will not accomplish that which we claim, if instructions are carried out.
N. B.—See the Prospectus for each article or consult the Doctor himself. Come and be convinced. Dr. Arthur Gentil's INFALLIBLE PREVENTIVE against Small pox can be obtained at his office, No. 11 Kearny street. Consultations free from 1 to 4 P. M. and from 7 to 8 in the evening (Sundays excepted).

Prof. Hilgard's Lecture on "Industrial Surveys and Experiment Stations."

Appeal for the Agricultural College at the University—State Surveys—Prof. Whitney's Surveys — Experiment Stations.

Prof. Hilgard delivered a very interesting lecture yesterday afternoon at the University on the subject of "Industrial Surveys and Experiment Stations." The speaker referred to several eloquent appeals that had been delivered at the State University in behalf of Industrial Science. He said: "I do not propose to repeat what has been well said, and so truly. My object is rather to address to you a few supplementary remarks regarding industrial science.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

The course that I hope some of you will choose to go through here, when completed, will have taught you the why and wherefore of agricultural and technical operations. It will have taught you how to observe facts, or phenomena, correctly and accurately, and how to reason upon them, so far as this can be done in the very short space of time usually allowed in this country to general and professional education combined. But 'common sense' is as indispensable in scientific pursuits, as in the most ordinary affairs of life.

Scientific reasoning is the logic of common sense, strictly and systematically carried out in the most comprehensive manner. In technical courses here, our primary object is, after a medium of general education, which is an indispensable prerequisite, to teach youth principles upon which you should work, exemplifying the application to practice as much as possible by examples taken from actual life and practice. It is teaching you principles and not handicraft alone that we prepare you for the exercise of your chosen profession. The great majority of your fellow-citizens are so situated as to have to resort to professional advice in any case of difficulty. It is the object of the technical course of the University to place you in a position where you will have no need to resort to professional advice. You will be enabled to examine the natural resources of your State.

STATE SURVEYS.

Such examinations have been carried on under the National and State Governments, from the earlier part of the century.

Since geology is not only the first in order of time to follow geography, but is of some fundamental importance in determining the features of a country, these explorations have generally received the name of geographical surveys. New York took the lead in enlarging the scope of inquiry, in instituting her "Natural History Surveys," in which all departments of natural history were provided for.

PROF. WHITNEY'S SURVEYS.

I do not stand here the especial of advocate of Prof. Whitney's order of procedure in the State survey; but I do wish to say here as an expert, that whatever he has ordered to be done, was work that needed doing, and it has been well done as far as it goes. But it is only the scientific groundwork that has been laid. It now remains to work out its practical side. When an immigrant comes to this State where can he go for authentic, reliable information? It is precisely this kind of information that we want, and it is something we cannot get. It would be a waste of precious material to omit the publication of scientific observations, but there must be a portion of the report written for the industrial classes, in the plainest language possible, giving the facts and conclusion that interest them directly.

EXPERIMENT STATIONS

There is another feature which is at once suggested by the many practical questions arising in the discussion of observations made, and of experience collected in the course of an industrial survey. This is the dissability of a number of so-called experiment stations located at suitable points in the different agricultural sub-divisions of the State for the purpose of testing on a scale sufficiently large, but under the guidance of expert experimenters those practical questions which as they refer to local circumstances can only be decided in loco, while the physical and chemical examination of coils for example can convey highly important suggestions in regard to the best and cheapest methods of maintaining or restoring productiveness, yet the indications will, as a rule require the test of experiment before they can be confidently recommended for general acceptance. The agricultural grounds and laboratories of the University constitute one of these experiment stations. But common sense as well as experience in the rest of the world teaches that such stations should be numerous on account of the impossibility of producing in any locality all the various circumstances that would influence the results of experiments made in the region especially concerned.

Foremost among the means of prevention of the exhausting of our soil is

THE DIFFUSION OF KNOWLEDGE

Of the principles of national agriculture, and of their application under the varied circumstances of soil and climate existing in this State. From the position you will, we hope, occupy among the rising generation, on account of the superior educational advantage you have enjoyed, many grave responsibilities will rest upon you, students of the University. Among these responsibilities, few will be graver than that for the influence which you may expert on behalf of progressive agriculture and industrial education whether as legislators, or as leaders of public opinion.

The engine of the late City Flour Mill has been enclosed, and is now furnishing steam for the ice company.

The ship "Arundel Castle" finished loading at Long Wharf yesterday and was towed over to San Francisco.

The practice of working horses belonging to the Fire Daparment in the street sprinklers is still being carried on.

M. Grun forfeited $10 bail in the Police Court to-day rather than appear to answer to a charge of misdemeanor.

Dietz' Hall has been examined by experts and is pronounced perfectly safe. The Sacramento disaster has served as a warning.

For years the fire in the stove of the Oyster House refreshment saloon, on Seventh street, has never been allowed to die out.

A lot of petty thieves are about, who are in the habit of stealing bread and milk from the doorsteps of citizens early in the morning.

The overland and all other trains passed through this city on the First street track this morning, the break on Long Wharf being repaired.

A countryman's horse got the traces entangled about its hind legs on Broadway this noon, and created some excitement by kicking at the dash-board of the wagon.

L. Alexander has begun suit in the Third District Court against F. A. Roe, to compel him to trade back 270 acres of land in Alameda, which he gave him for 11,000 shares of stock.

Not a single wagon is taken aboard of the steamer "Capital" until it is weighed at the gate on entering the yard, at the foot of Broadway. The company charges by the weight under the new schedule.

W. Collins, Superidendent of the Mountain View Cemetery has returned from a brief visit to Ventura County. Thomas Burns, the newsdealer, has also returned from a trip through Southern California.

Another theft was reported yesterday. Mr. S. George, who was engaged in fitting up a store under Blair's Hotel, had a watch stolen from his pocket about 4 o'clock. No trace of the thief has been discovered.

Jane Graham was discharged from custody at the City Hall to-day. She was arrested two days ago on a charge of burglary, but the prosecuting witness is sick and will not be able to appear for two or three weeks.

William Blote, collector for the Contra Costa Water Company, who had his right ankle broken by being thrown from a horse in East Oakland, a few weeks ago, is now able to appear on the streets with the aid of crutches.

A match game of foot-ball is in progress this afternoon on Lafayette Square. The contestants on one side are from the Oakland High School and their opponents are pupils of the middle class of the San Francisco High School.

It now transpires that the railroad company was anxious to procure a lot at the foot of Broadway on which to erect an overland depot. The owner asked four times what the land was worth, and the company purchased property at the foot of Market street.

The youthful Ebenezer Locke, from the Point, was examined in the Police Court this morning, on a charge of battery upon the person of a Chinese boy ten or twelve years of age. Testimony in the case went to show that the boys had a scuffle, but who struck the first blow no one could tell. The Court dismissed the case with a reprimand to young Locke.

S. Grey, the somewhat noted landlord and tailor, who does business near the corner of Seventh and Market street, tried to create a disturbance in the Oakland Bank over a few cents which he claimed the bank officers were trying to cheat him out of. The officers being gentlemen, and not wishing any trouble, politely invited the blunderbuss to take a walk. He did so.

Henry Harvey, who shot one Harper through the arm day before yesterday, was tried in the Police Court this morning. It appearing that Harper went to the house for the purpose of creating a disturbance, and having threatened the life of Harvey before, the Court dismissed the defendant Harvey on the charge of assault. He plead guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons, and was ordered to appear for sentence Monday, with bail set at $100.

Julian Pfeister was tried on a charge of petit larceny in Justice Graham's Court yesterday. Pfeister was arrested at the instance of a woman living over in Butchertown. The woman's son some three months ago succeeded in capturing a large stick of driftwood in the bay and had it hauled up on the beach near his mother's residence. Pfeister cut off two or three stove-lengths hence the charge. It appearing that the woman had no legal claim to the property, the case was dismissed.

Alex. Harper was found guilty in the Police Court this morning of a misdemeanor in carrying concealed weapons and exhibiting them in a violent and threatening manner. He is the fellow who was shot through the arm by Henry Harvey while engaged in a fracas on Fourth street last Thursday. It seems that Harper went into Harvey's house, was ordered out, drew a pistol on Harvey while on the sidewalk, and was shot before he could use it. He will appear for sentence Monday morning with bail set at $250.

As a number of wild Texan steers were being unloaded at the Market street depot to-day at noon, one of the the number broke away from the band and ran away. Two horsemen were at once in pursuit, and chased the animal through a number of streets, and finally caught him on the corner of First and Webster streets. In running down Franklin street, an excited individual rushed into his house and procured a large horse pistol, with which he mounted a lath pile on the City Wharf and let blaze at the steer. This infuriated the animal to such an extent that he ran into a wood pile and broke one of his horns off.

LEGAL NOTES.

The Third District Court adjourned yesterday afternoon until Monday next at 10 o'clock.

The jury in the case of Walker vs. Rowell have disagreed and were discharged. They stood nine for plaintiff and three for defendant.

The matter of petition for guardianship of minor children of Mary Ann Dodge was to-day continued one week by the Probate Court.

In the Probate Court to-day, the hearing on petition for partial distribution and settlement of accounts of the estate of Jose D. Peralta was concluded.

Yesterday the firm of Chase & Baker sued and recovered judgment against J. H. Mansfield for the sum of $20 90; and J. T. Bonnifield for $52 10. Each of these claims were for groceries furnished the defendants.

A demurrer of defendant in the case of Bartlett vs. Davis was overruled this morning in the County Court, and the defendant was ordered to answer this afternoon. The case is set for trial on Tuesday next at 10 o'clock.

A butcher named H. Mayers yesterday obtained judgment against A. A. Deitrich, for the sum of $88 68 and costs of suit. The account was relative to an unpaid meat bill and the suit was tried in justice Wm. Graham's Court.

Amigo Peralta and one Castro met at a party given at the former's residence some two weeks ago. They got to arguing over the subject of foot-racing, and Peralta deposited $25 against $15 that he could beat Castro in a race to be run the next day. The stakeholder was D. M. Ayres, but for some unaccountable reason the race was declared "off" by both parties. Castro went to the track the next day, and Ayers says he paid him the stakes. Peralta sued in Justice Graham's Court for the return of his stake, and a judgment was given in his favor.

In the County Court a few days ago, Mr. Doane, of San Francisco, gained judgment against one Johnson, who had built a shanty on his (Doane's) property on the marsh near Webster street, for $87. The Judge also ordered that Johnson be dispossessed, and the Sheriff carried it into execution yesterday. The entire household furniture was landed on the sidewalk and the door of the house nailed up. To-day the place presents a sorry-looking sight. The household goods are scattered, and Mrs. Johnson, or "Mud Hen Johnson," as she is familiarly known, is lying close by beastly drunk.

ALAMEDA ITEMS.

[From the Encinal of November 25.]

The Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church has concluded to celebrate Christmas by having a pleasant social gathering on Christmas night.

Union Thanksgiving Services will be held in the Presbyterian church next Thursday morning, at a quarter-past 11 o'clock. Rev. H. B. Heacock will deliver the discourse.

Harry Calvin, in the employ of Dr. J. C. Tucker, brought to our sanctum yesterday a pair of hen's eggs joined together by a cord like unto that which for so many years held the Siamese twins, of world-wide repute. It is a novelty in hen incubation.

The ladies of the Methodist church have decided to hold a fair, some time during the coming month, to continue two or three evenings. The object is to aid in furnishing the new church, which is rapidly approaching completion, and is expected to be ready for dedication during the holidays.

Harmonic Hall is the place where, and Friday evening, December the 8th, time when, the "O C. Club" of amateurs will give an exhibition of their artistic ability, in comedy and farce. The selections embrace "Checkmate" and "Ici on parle Francais." The evening to close with a social dance.

The first fire, since the town has had a fire company organization, occurred last Tuesday night—and it was just outside of the limits of the corporation, in Brooklyn township. The house known as the "Gooby house," on the Sather property, near Fernside station, had been unoccupied for some time past. Recently some "tramps" are said to have taken possession of it, for a roosting place; and the presumption is that they set fire to it, accidentally or otherwise.

The tent meetings still continue, with unabated vigor. The expounders must have some terrible tussles with the Evil One, if their outcries may be taken as a basis for an opinion. To bring the matter to a fine point, we must honestly say that the noise that at times proceeds from the tent, in any place but Alameda, would be treated as a nuisance. God is not deaf, and all the shouting in the world will not terrify the Arch Fiend—he's used to it, and rather enjoys the excitement, we imagine.

The McGibeny family gave one of their charming musical soirees last evening, at the Methodist Church, to a full house, under the auspices of the Sons of Temperance. Several addresses on temperance were also made, by eminent members of the Order. And this reminds us that preliminary steps are now being taken to organize a lodge of the "Sons" in Alameda—Mr. A. A. Byron, as Grand Representative of the Order, being fully commissioned to establish lodges wherever, in his judgment, a fair opening presents itself. He has already enlisted in the projected lodge for Alameda the co-operation of many of our most prominent citizens.

WEST OAKLAND ITEMS.

[From the West Oakland Press of November 25.]

The Maple Leaf Club gives its ball at Stanford Hall on the 29th.

Sportsmen are in great glee now that the silvery salmon have commenced running in the bay.

Talk says an effort will be made by the Presbyterians to buy the Second Congregational Church.

Louis Janin, the distinguished geologist and mineralogist, arrived home in Oakland on Monday last.

The McGibney family will give another of their splendid entertainments at Stanford Hall, on Sunday next.

After a long course of grumbling by the people, and an extensive use of printer's ink upon the subject, Railroad avenue, West Oakland, has at last got her corners ornamented with lamp-posts and the necessary gas.

It is a matter of much regret to the church-going people of West Oakland, to announce that the Rev. C. H. Pope has resigned his pastorate of the Second Congregational Church. It is the more to be regretted, because the only reason for his course was in a financial line. The financial lock, caused by carrying a large debt, the interest of which devours more than half the monthly income; the unsuccessful appeal to outsiders to aid in removing the debt; increase of debt; are the prime causes that have operated in Mr. Pope's resignation. Since his stay here the Church has gained 38 members, and Mr. Pope, in a point of successfulness, has much to congratulate himself upon, while the Church has much to regret in losing such a talented and very popular pastor.

BROOKLYN LITERARY SOCIETY.

Interesting Meeting Last Evening—Subject for the Next Debate.

The Brooklyn Literary Society met last evening at the usual time and place, and the members responded to their names by appropriate quotations. The first piece on the programme was a piano solo by Miss Georgia Sweeney, which was executed in her usual excellent style. The next in order was "Reasons for Things," by Mr. Pensam, which theme he elucidated in his accustomed terse and concise manner. A recitation entitled "Our Folks," was then given by Mr. Wood, which elicited the commendation of the audience. Next came the reading of the Society's paper, by the editor, Mr. Holiday, and editress, Miss Leise. This feature of the exercises is one that always pleases by the witty selections and spicy editorials contained therein; and in this case justice was done to its well deserved reputation. "Olla Podrida," by Mr. Lee, consisting of an amusing melange of national characteristics and imitations of the peculiarities of various people, provoked much merriment. The subject for debate at the next meeting, December 1st, is as follows: "Resolved, That the present mode of trial by jury does not subserve the ends of justice." Affirmative, Messrs. Wood and Taylor; Negative, Messrs. Barnes and Pensam.

On motion a committee was appointed, consisting of Dr. R. W. Ellis and J. F. Burris, of Oakland, and E. W. Wilson, of San Francisco, to take the necessary preliminary steps towards a permanent organization and to make arrangements for the first re-union banquet to be given during the holidays. The committee is to report in two weeks, at which time, for the accommodation of the many San Francisco members a meeting will be held in San Francisco, place to be duly announced in one week. A full attendance is desired, especially of the older members, as important business is to be transacted. Alumni from distant points are requested to address the committee by letter without delay.

There was a full Cabinet meeting yesterday, lasting two hours. Affairs in Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina, and questions growing out of the Presidential election, received attention. Statutes touching points recently raised, and opinions of the Attorney-General upon questions of rights and duties of Courts in instances similar to those in South Carolina and Florida were referred to, but no formal action was taken by the Government.

Gov. Hendricks on the Political Situation.

NEW YORK, November 25th.—The Tribune says that in his interview with Governor Tilden last evening Governor Hendricks said public sentiment in the Western States in regard to the election was so strong that he was compelled to come East to ascertain the condition of public feeling here. He expressed his admiration at the conduct of the Southern Democrats, who, without the least manifestation of turbulence, had appealed everywhere to the courts, and he was glad both in the West and on his journey hitherward to notice a disposition of all parties to have matters amicably and lawfully settled. He felt that their cause was just and would ultimately triumph by the will of the American people.

Governor Tilden fully concurred with all of Governor Hendricks' remarks, and there appeared to be a perfect accord of ideas in regard to the questions of the hour. While there seemed to be a lack of confidence in the doings of the Returning Boards in the South, no disposition was manifest on the part of Governor Tilden or Governor Hendricks to enter upon a decided plan of action.

THAT OREGON ELECTOR.

Rumors of Legal Proceedings to Prevent Issuing of Certificate.

[SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.]

PORTLAND, Or., November 25th.—A report was in circulation here yesterday to the effect that application by certain prominent Democrats for a temporary injunction had been made to Judge R. P. Boise, of the Third Judicial District enjoining Governor Grover and Chadwick, Secretary of State, from issuing a certificate of election to Dr. J. W. Watts, who, it is claimed, is disqualified to serve as elector, on the ground of being Postmaster at the time of election. Judge Boise denies that such application has been made. There is much talk here among Democrats that legal steps would be immediately taken to prevent the certificate from being issued, but nothing has been done yet in that direction. The Democrats claim that Watts is ineligible, and say that he shall not receive his certificate if the courts can prevent it. The Republicans are confident that the certificate cannot be legally withheld, and propose to fight the matter to the bitter end. A strong impression prevails that the Democrats are talking only for effect, and will push the question no further. The report that Senator Kelly is on his way to Oregon has created no small comment in political circles. Secretary Chadwick has announced that the official vote of the State will be declared on the 4th proximo.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MATTERS.

Centerville is building a public school house that will cost when finished $3,500. Livermore's new school house building, just completed cost $8,000.

The examination of applicants for teacher's certificates, State and County, will commence December 6th, in the Court House. Applicants are expected to be promptly on hand at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Already a large number of applications have been made to the County Superintendent of Schools, for teacher's positions. Many of the applicants are young girls, just graduated from the Public Schools in this city or San Francisco, and therefore are unacquainted with the system of teaching in the small ungraded schools.

THE UNKNOWN DEAD.

BY THE LATE HENRY TIMROD OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

The rain is splashing on my sill,
But all the winds of heaven are still;
And so it falls with that dull sound
Which thrills us in the church-yard ground,
When the first spadeful drops like lead
Upon the coffin of the dead.
Beyond my streaming window-pane
I cannot see the neighboring vane,
Yet from its old familiar tower
The bell comes, muffled, through the shower.
What strange and unsuspected link
Of feeling touched has made me think,
While with a vacant soul and eye
I watched that gray and stony sky,
Of nameless graves on battle-plains,
Washed by a single winter's rains,
Where—some beneath Virginian hills,
And some by green Atlantic rills,
Some by the waters of the West—
A myriad unknown heroes rest!
Ah, not the chiefs who, dying see
Their flags in front of victory,
Or at their life-blood's noblest cost,
Pay for a battle nobly lost,
Claim from their monumental beds
The bitterest tears a nation sheds!
Beneath your lonely mound—the spot
By all save some fond few forgot
Lie the true martyrs of the fight
Which strikes for freedom and for right.
Of them, their patriot zeal and pride,
The lofty faith that with them died,
No grateful page shall further tell
Than that so many brave y fell;
And we can only dimly guess
What worlds of all this world's distress,
What utter woe, despair and dearth
Their fate has brought to many a hearth.
Just such a sky as this should weep
Above them always where they sleep;
Yet, haply, at this very hour
Their graves are like a lover's bower;
And Nature's self, with eyes unwet,
Oblivious of the crimson debt
To which she owes her april grace,
Laughs gayly o'er their burial-place.

DIPHTHERIA.

Hints for those Afflicted with the Epidemic.

Mrs. S. Farjeon, of San Francisco has sent us the following extracts in reference to the treatment of di, h heria, now so prevalent among the children of this city. She states that they are highly endorsed by the New York Tribune:

CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

The following recipe is given by an old gentleman of Charlottsville, Va., who states that he has often known it to be used in cases of diphtheria and has never known it to fail in effecting a cure: Take a handful of alder root, a handful of dogwood root, a handful of the bark of persimmon root; boil with a pint of vinegar down to half a pint; then add a very little water, a small lump of alum, and a little honey. Let the patient use it frequently as a gargle.

ANOTHER REMEDY

For this disease is sent by an old lady who has known several persons in Europe cured by using it. Take of white pulverized rosin, two ounces; of beeswax, cut fine two ounces; of butter without salt, two ounces; and of mutton suet, two ounces: boil all together; when cool, spread the mixture on a piece of old linen and lay over the sore part of the throat; repeat in twelve hours. This will bring all the inflamation to the outside, after which care must be taken to keep the throat warm, as a second attack may be worse than the first. Keep a soft, dry handkerchief around the throat when the ointment is taken off.

NOTE:—As diphtheria is caused by a fungus growth attached to the lining membranes of the throat, the suggestion is ventured that lemon juice freely administered in connection with this remedy could do no harm, or, if lemon juice could not be procured, a gargle of chlorate of potassa would be a good substitute. Diphtheria is not to be trifled with.

Governor Hendricks on the Situation.

NEW YORK, November 24th.—Governor Hendricks, Governor Tilden, ex-Governor Curtis, Hon. Abram S. Hewitt and wife and Mrs. Hendricks dined with Hon. Peter Cooper to-night. Governor Hendricks leaves for home to-morrow. The following statement was made by Governor Hendricks: He did not come here for the purpose of holding a conference. He states that he is so perfectly convinced that the feeling of honest men throughout the country is so general that Tilden has been elected, and the sense of justice of the country, irrespective of party, is so strong that the corrupt Canvassing Boards of the South will not dare to set public opinion at defiance; and if they do make the attempt, they will fail in their purpose.

Tilden Reading Up.

CHICAGO, November 24th.—The Tribune's Washington dispatch says: Tilden is represented as busy, reading up constitutional questions on the election of President, law books, Congressional proceedings, etc., and particularly studying the laws of the Southern States now in dispute, and where ineligible Electors have been found. He is in constant consultation with prominent politicians and lawyers concerning possible contingencies affecting his chances. This is believed to be in preparation of [illegible] by Democratic Con[illegible]

FLORIDA.

All but Three Counties Heard From—Republican Majority 763—Intimidation by Democrats.

[SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.]

TALLAHASSEE, November 24th.—Arguments in the injunction and mandamus cases were continued to-day before Judge White. Mr. Sellers and Judge Biddle of Philadelphia, in speeches, and Governor Brown of Georgia, by written argument, appeared for the Democrats, and General Barlow and Judge Emmons for the Republicans. The Court will possibly decide to-night, certainly to-morrow. The situation is unchanged. There are three counties yet to hear from. It will be Monday before all the returns are in; possibly later. The result from the face of the returns will be very close. It is very probable that unless the cases now pending should go to the Supreme Court the canvass will begin Monday or Tuesday. If appeal is made before Thursday the canvass will probably run up to the 5th of December, no matter when it is opened.

WASHINGTON, November 24th.—It is said that the dispatch received by the Republican National Committee yesterday, saying that Florida gave

763 REPUBLICAN MAJORITY,

Came in cypher, and was all right, but for some reason the Committee did not wish to examine it.

NEW YORK, November 25th—Morning—The Times Tallahassee special, speaking of the proceedings before the Court says: The gist of this whole matter lies in the fact that the Democrats set up a man of straw for the purpose of knocking him down. They wish to enjoin Governor Stearns from canvassing the returns, and made allegations as to what he intends or may intend, to say

WHEN HIS SOLEMN OATH

Is before this Court, that he never intended and does not intend to do any such thing. His duty is clear under the law, but the Democrats are attempting to have the country believe that Governor Stearns threatens to do some great wrong, to violate the law, and to canvass the returns for the Presidential Electors alone, and in defiance of, or in despite of, the Canvassing Board. Nothing can be

MORE GLARINGLY FALSE.

The law requires the Governor to ascertain and declare the result from the Board of Canvassers, and thereupon to forthwith issue certificates to the duly elected candidates. This is all; yet the Democrats thought they could raise a breeze in the North by charging a corrupt intention on the part of the Republican Governor, and by rushing the matter into Court and getting their injunction against an act which the Executive would never perform, and to create a furore in the country, in the confusion of which they might go on more securely in their infamous work, whether the Judge granted the injunction or not. It is plain

THE DEMOCRATS ARE BEATEN

Again at their own game. Evidence of fraud, bribery and violence on the part of the Democrats in a large number of counties is accumulating. The details are startling in many instances, and will show to the country, when revealed, how cruel and how perfect is the machinery of injustice the Democrats put in motion. It is believed that the returns from all counties will be in by the first of next week. Leading Democrats here now, do not claim the State for Tilden with much earnestness at present. Their hope is to carry the State ticket at most, and trust to some Democratic providences in the Electoral College for Tilden's last chances.

Later telegrams just received from Gainesville state that the Republican messengers to southern counties were driven back by Democratic reformers by force and violence. There is much excitement in consequence.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Action of the Supreme Court—Letter to Wade Hampton—Butler on the Situation.

[SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Columbia (S. C.), November 24th.—The Court convened at 4 P. M., in response to the rule issued at the morning session to the Board of Canvassers, to show cause why they should not be attached for contempt in refusing to obey the mandate issued on Wednesday. U. S. District Attorney Corbin, counsel for the Board, introduced an affidavit asking for further time, but be refusing to indicate the line of their defence, or assure the Court that they would obey the mandamus, no further time was given, and counsel for the relators were instructed to draw the order, but as a recitation of all the proceedings was required as a preface to the order to commit the Board for contempt, they requested until to-morrow morning to file it. The Court said they hoped the Board would in the morning obey its mandate, and purge themselves of contempt. If they do not they will be committed to jail.

NEW YORK, November 24th.—Tilden and Hendricks were closeted to-day, Hewitt being also present. To-night Hewitt publishes a letter to Wade Hampton, as follows:

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, NEW YORK, November 24th.—My Dear Sir:—Your admirable address to the people of South Carolina is the subject of universal commendation here. In fact the prudence, forbearance, and self-control of your people, under the most exasperating provocations, is beyond all praise. I can only trust that under the exciting situation in which you will find yourself next week, no outbreak will occur. It is almost too much to expect that there will be no indiscreet man in South Carolina who may provoke a collision; but nevertheless, the providence of God has so far guided you and your people in all your difficulties that your friends rest in calm confidence upon the wisdom and good fortune which have so far attended your actions. You may rest assured your Northern brethern have consecrated themselves to the work of your deliverance, and will never cease their efforts until you are restored to that freedom wherewith you were endowed by the labors and sacrifices and wisdom of our forefathers and your forefathers. God give you and your people all the wisdom and all the patience needed in this hour of trial and in this crisis of the destiny of our common country. We have full faith in the justice of the people of the United States, and we do not entertain a doubt of the final verdict which they will pass upon the occurrences of the last two weeks. This verdict will surely vindicate their majesty and re-establish free government upon a lasting basis.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ABRAHAM S. HEWITT.

Chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

General Butler on the Situation in South Carolina.

CHICAGO, November 24th.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington correspondent interviewed General Butler to-day, who expressed the opinion that the South Carolina Returning Board were compelled to act as they did under the law, and the Democrats simply fell into the pit they themselves digged. In leaving the two intimidated counties to be acted on by the Legislature, they did just right, and it was absurd to claim that the Court could extend the time for the sessions of the Board.

DR. CURTIS'
Medical Work,
MANHOOD!!
200th Edition Just Issued
—BY—
E. de F. Curtis, M. D., etc.,
AUTHOR OF
"Manhood," "Medical Essays on Marriage," "Exposure of Quacks and Quackery," "The use of the Microscope in Certain Cases of Debility," etc.

A MEDICAL ESSAY ON THE CAUSE OF Premature Decline, with directions for its perfect restoration, addressed to those suffering from the destructive effects of Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality, Abuses of the system and all kindred ailments, with instructions on the obligations and objects of Marriage.

This work, of which over 200,000 copies have been issued, is written in a plain and sympathizing manner on the subject under consideration, WITHOUT any of the professional claptrap of the empiric, but WITH the experience of the author in his twenty years' treatment of these diseases, which, strange to say, seem to be ignored by the general run of respectable practitioners.

Clergymen, Physicians and most intellectual men of both hemispheres have recommended its perusal, and by reference to the "OPINIONS OF THE PRESS" it will be readily seen in what estimation the work on "MANHOOD" is held.

EXTRACTS
FROM
REVIEWS OF THIS WORK.
Commencing with the Year 1850.

MANHOOD: BY DR. CURTIS.—In this age of pretension, when the privileges of the true are constantly usurped by the false and fraudulent, it is difficult to afford the sufferer from nervous debility the unerring means of judgment where to seek relief. The author of this work has obviated the difficulty. His experience and reputation in the treatment of these painful diseases are the patient's guarantee, and well deserve for the work its immense circulation—Era.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD should be in the hands of youth and old age. It is a medical publication, ably written, and develops the treatment of a class of painful maladies which have too long been the prey of the illiterate and designing.—United Service Gazette.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—It develops the fearful shoals on which a large proportion of human happiness is wrecked, and furnishes a chart by which they may be avoided and escaped. Fortunate for a country would it be did its youth put into practice the philanthropic and scientific maxims here laid down—one cause of matrimonial misery might then be banished from our land, and the race of the enervate be succeeded by a renewal of the hardy vigorous spirits of the olden time.—Chronicle.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—This is really a valuable work for pointing out the diseases resulting from the excesses the evils of which are manifested in every insane asylum, no less than in the shattered constitution of those indulging, it will do much to prevent the vice which, by its prevalence among the young, has so much influence on the present as on the future well-being of many.—Herald.

DR. CURTIS' WORK, ENTITLED "MANHOOD," is one of the few books now coming before the public on a subject which can lay claim to the character of being strictly professional, at the same time that it is fully intelligible to all who read it. The moral and medical precepts given in it render it invaluable.—Magnet.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—This is truly a valuable work, and it should be in the hands of young and old. The professional reputation of the author, combined with his twenty years' experience as medical referee in the treatment of nervous debility, etc., fully accounts for the immense circulation which his popular and ably-written medical treatise has obtained.—Sunday Times.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—This work, which for twenty years has stood the test of professional criticism and empirical hostility, treats in a plain and sympathizing manner on the various disqualifications and impediments arising from nervous excitement and debility; and to invalids suffering from youthful errors and excesses it will be found valuable and useful.—Record.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—The author has conferred a great boon on society by publishing this little work, in which are described those diseases which produce decline in youth, or, more frequently, premature old age.—Daily Telegraph.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—It is the duty of all men to study the laws of their body no less than those of their mind. In the pages of this work will be found golden rules for regulating the one and preserving the other.—Mark Lane Express.

DR. E. De F. CURTIS.

Having received several inquiries as to the professional qualifications of the above gentleman, we take pleasure in publishing the following testimonial, received in answer to our inquiries, from the Secretary of the Eclectic Medical College. The Doctor has apparently some reason to be proud of the good opinions he has gained elsewhere:

OFFICE OF THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL COLLEGE OF THE CITY OF N. Y., 137 WEST 47TH ST., NEW YORK, March 1, 1876.

EDITOR NEWS LETTER:—Dear Sir: Yours of February 21st received. We are happy to be able to inform you that Dr. Curtis holds a diploma signed by some of the most eminent men in the country—one which our college recognizes. Our acquaintance with the Doctor, his position, professional merit and standing, is such that our College, according to its charter, conferred upon him our ad eundem degree. Allow me to refer to one of his references in this city a gentleman of great distinction and high position, Robert F. Noah, First Assistant Corporation Attorney of New York City, also one of the owners, editors and publishers of (Noah's) Sunday Times. He said in a letter to our College: "I have known Dr. Curtis for a period of over twelve years professionally and socially, and cheerfully testify that he is in every way a gentleman of high standing, a great student and linguist, with an excellent reputation for professional ability." Our College is in possession of much information of a similar character. Yours truly,
ROBERT S. NEWTON, M. D.,
Sec. E. M. College.
